Bring on the Vevan!

Hi Grocery Store Manager!

I've discovered an amazing new dairy-free, plant-based cheese but I'm super bummed that it's not available in my favorite store. Vevan is a plant-based revolution! It's made by artisan cheesemakers, which is how Vevan's familiar, authentically creamy texture perfectly complements its gooey melt and sensational flavor.

Would you please consider carrying Vevan so I (and everyone else who's gone dairy-free!) can make it one of your best-sellers?
